Hold Onto Jesus
Rachel Lamb Brown

I called the Daystar Prayer Line on a rough day and spoke with Jim. He took extra time to listen, encourage me, and pray with me, and it meant so much. I'm so grateful for Daystar's 24/7 Prayer Line—it's such a blessing to know someone is always there when you need prayer. God bless you all!

VICTORY IS YOURS

with Nancy Dufresne

Why do you think so many sincere Christians are living beneath what Jesus already purchased for them?

ND: There are three primary reasons why believers are not experiencing all that Jesus has provided for them:

1. Many don't know what belongs to them.
2. Even if they do know what belongs to them, many times their faith is weak – it's not strong enough to appropriate and receive what has been provided for them.
3. Disobedience.

The good news is that all three of these things are fixable! First of all, we need to find out what belongs to us because we are in Christ. Everything that God planned and desired for us, He put in Christ, then put Christ in us. Jesus' earthly life was an example of what the believer's life can look like and produce.

We are to find out what the Word says is ours. Feeding on all of the Word will bless us, but the letters that were written specifically to the Church are the Epistles, so we should spend time especially feeding on those.

Proverbs 4:20-22 instructs us, "My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings... For they are life unto those that FIND THEM, and health to all their flesh." We have to take the time to "find them" – we must find out what God's Word says if we are going to benefit from it.

Hosea 4:6 warns us, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge..." When we are ignorant of God's Word, then the devil is able to take advantage of us.

Thank God for the teaching and preaching of the Word we have heard, but we can't just count on what others may have taught us. We have to go to the Word for ourselves and find out what it says and not just rely on what someone else says. We need to know for ourselves.

You often teach that faith isn't about trying to get God to move—it's about receiving what He's already provided. How does that truth change the way we pray and live?

ND: So many approach prayer with the mindset that they need to talk God into doing something for them, so they pray trying to coerce or persuade Him to work for them. But God is not a withholder – He's a giver! In fact, He has already given us everything we will ever need in this life.

In 2 Peter 1:3, we read, "For His divine power HAS BESTOWED upon us all things that are requisite and suited to life and godliness..." When we have knowledge that He has already given us all things we could ever need to live successfully in this life, then we see that all we need to do is receive what He's given.

Mark 11:24 reads, "Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, BELIEVE THAT YE RECEIVE THEM, and ye shall have them."

Receiving and manifestation are two different things. "Manifestation" is dealing with this natural realm, when something shows up in this seen realm. But "receiving" is dealing with the spirit realm, the unseen realm.

Our part is to receive what He has provided. We are to "perform the act of receiving." We do that by simply saying, "I receive it. I agree with God's Word. I receive what He has already provided. I count it done, and I have it now. So, I act as though the Word is true, for it is!"

That's what faith is – speaking and acting like the Word is true.

Many are wondering why God isn't moving to give them something, when we just need to agree with what He has already provided and thank Him for it – that's what causes it to come into being.

When someone has prayed, believed, and still hasn't seen their breakthrough, how do they keep their faith strong without becoming discouraged?

ND: Second Corinthians 4:18 tells us, "While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen..."

Having our attention on the Word puts faith in us, but having our attention on natural circumstances will take faith out of us.

Anything that we can see in this natural realm is temporal, meaning that it's changeable. It's faith in God's Word that will cause the natural realm to change.

Faith is only interested in one thing – what God says! Our faith is affected by our attention. What our attention is on is what our faith is on. When our faith is turned toward God and His Word and away from symptoms, then our faith will be unwavering.

Your television program, Jesus the Healer, has encouraged countless people around the world. Why has the message of healing remained such a central part of your ministry?

ND: In 1971, before my husband, Ed Dufresne, even entered the ministry, God told him to attend a conference. While he was at that conference, Jesus put a healing anointing in his hand, and from that day forward, divine healing has been an earmark of this ministry.

As I ministered alongside my husband, that same healing anointing has flowed through me. We believe we have a responsibility to stay faithful to minister the anointing God has placed on this ministry.

We have seen countless people healed in our services, but since our daily broadcast started, we have also received many testimonies of people receiving healing as they watch our broadcast and release their faith.

I thank God for the opportunity to lay hands on those in our services who need healing, but it is such a great joy to see people healed as they hear and act on the teaching on our Jesus the Healer broadcast. They see for themselves how easy it is to receive from God.

If every believer truly understood one truth about the victorious life Jesus has given us, what would you want that truth to be?

ND: If every believer would recognize that God has ALREADY GIVEN and PROVIDED all they would ever need, then they would live free from fear, and they would enter into a "rest" that belongs to faith.

He has provided all we need, and with our faith, we become a partaker of what He has provided. Philemon 1:6 tells us, "That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus."

When symptoms come, we acknowledge and declare that Jesus has already healed us. When lack tries to come, we acknowledge and declare that God has already made full provision for us. When any opposition comes, we acknowledge and declare that Jesus has already won the victory for us. Then we simply thank and praise Him for it.

GOD IS NOT A WITHHOLDER—HE'S A GIVER.

BE STILL

Life has a way of filling our minds with noise. Between busy schedules, difficult seasons, and the constant demands of everyday life, it can be hard to find a quiet place where we can simply rest in the presence of God. That is why Daystar created Be Still: Melodies to Quiet the Soul, an exclusive instrumental CD designed to help you slow down, quiet your heart, and focus on the One who promises perfect peace.

Featuring beautifully arranged instrumental worship, Be Still creates the perfect atmosphere for prayer, personal devotion, Bible reading, or simply resting in God's presence. Whether you're beginning your day with the Lord, winding down after a long day, or searching for peace during a difficult season, these inspiring melodies will encourage you to pause, breathe, and remember that God is always near.

Throughout Scripture, God repeatedly invites His children to be still and trust Him. In those quiet moments, we often hear His voice most clearly, receive renewed strength, and find the peace that only He can give. Our prayer is that every song on this CD will help create space for those moments in your own life and home.

This month, when you give a special gift of $25 or more to Daystar, we'll send you Be Still: Melodies to Quiet the Soul as our way of saying thank you. Your generous partnership helps Daystar continue sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ around the world, bringing hope, encouragement, and biblical truth to millions every day.

If you've been longing for a deeper sense of God's peace or know someone who could use encouragement, this exclusive CD is a beautiful reminder to slow down and rest in His unfailing love. A Letter from a Member of Our Executive Leadership Team

Daystar Partners,

First, on behalf of the Executive Leadership Team and my family, I want to say thank you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you for your prayers, your kindness, and your unwavering faithfulness throughout this season. As many of you know, our family is grieving the loss of our mom. While we miss her deeply, we are also experiencing God's faithfulness in ways we never could have imagined. He has been our strength every day, and so many of you have been His hands and feet through your encouragement and love. We are so grateful.

One of the greatest lessons Mom taught our family was this: when you're going through a storm, hold on to Jesus. She didn't just say those words, she lived them. Through every trial and every victory, she kept her eyes fixed on Him. That's exactly what we're doing today. And if you're walking through a difficult season too, I want to encourage you to do the same. Hold on to Jesus! He is faithful. He is near to the brokenhearted, and He will give you the strength, comfort, and peace you need for each new day.

As we've continued the work of Daystar, one thing has become clearer than ever: the mission hasn't changed. If anything, our passion to reach people with the hope of Jesus has only grown stronger. I'm excited to share that we've recently launched on:

- Fawesome, reaching 7 million monthly active users across the United States, Canada, Latin America, Europe, and beyond with both Daystar and Daystar Español.
- Freely in the United Kingdom, reaching 4 million monthly active users on Channel 503.
- Molotov in France, reaching 1.4 million monthly active users with both Daystar and Daystar Español.
- Sling Freestream in the United States, reaching more than 2 million monthly active users.

Together, these new launches represent more than 14.4 million additional opportunities every month for someone to encounter the love of Jesus and have their life changed forever. That is only possible because of you.

Daystar has never simply been about television. It's about people. Every life changed, every prayer answered, every soul saved is something we get to celebrate together. Thank you for believing in this mission, for standing with us through every season, and for helping take the hope of Jesus to the world. I truly believe our greatest days are still ahead, and I'm so thankful we're walking into them together.

With love and gratitude,

Rachel Lamb Brown
